* TILT008 delivers another solid Neurofunk tune by Darmstadt's finest aka Budoka,
* and a Techno influenced piece by Spinor, the very third guest artist on the label.
* It also brings some changes: the releases on this label will not have whitelabel
* promo runs anymore but come into the shops directly as full artwork copies instead.
* Then, 3 weeks after the vinyl release, the tunes are made available digitally. Also,
* there will be no more tunes by the amex + Kaiza duo because amex kicked himself out.
* Finally, the future is about to see more tunes by guest artists on Tilt-Recordings.
* Spinor - "Moloch"
* Located in the Netherlands, Spinor has earned respect in the world of Drum & Bass
* since 2004 with releases on Dreazz' Triple Vision labels Citrus, Love and Piruh,
* also he has put out a tune on Crossfire Recordings and on the netlabel T-FREE.
* Although Spinor is rather known for Neurofunk with deep, melodic pads and midranges,
* "Moloch" received a lot of respect in the Techno-DNB scene even before its release,
* even though Spinor is still a relatively new name to this sub genre of Drum & Bass.
* And now this monstertune has eventually found a proper home on Tilt-Recordings.
* The intro's dark atmosphere and driving beat make clear where the journey will go,
* and the powerful drop proves that there is just no alternative to high energy music.
* No need to say much more about "Moloch", it simply is a sure shot on the dancefloor.
* Budoka - "Ritual"
* This artist should be well known to people following the releases on Tilt-Recordings,
* since he was not only the first artist on this label but has also provided many of
* the tunes being released on it since T!LT#001 in 2003/2004. Also supporting the new
* digital media, he has put out a series of 3 x 3-EPs on T-FREE in the summer of 2007
* (including the remastered "Whiplash" original from 2001 and other gems) and another
* tune on the well respected .shadybrain imprint in November 2007 ("Under Water").
* Now on TILT008, Budoka continues the good work he has done with his former releases:
* "Ritual" is a phat and juicy Neurofunk DJ-tool with a heavily pumping bassline,
* decent midrange arrangements woven around oriental strings and a breakdown which
* surprisingly opens a window to a far out universe full of dark secrets.
